EXPLORING SACRED WRITINGS: Tuesdays from 4:00pm to 5:00pm in the Barnhart Room. Every culture develops an ethics code expressed in writings to explain its values and validity. These are given as a list or a larger message in a special narrative. Such important instructions for life are special, regarded as inspired, and grow to the status of holy, even sacred. So, what to do with these revelations? We try to see what this great diversity shares – or is totally unique. At our meetings, after a chosen theme video, there is a lively discussion. Group members then share their perspective on what they watched. We also want to reach out to a broader band of revealed and revered thought: to truly Explore Sacred Writings. Come join us and contribute something that never crossed our minds!

WEDNESDAYS AT WINDROWS: Wednesday, April 9th from 3:00pm-4:00pm in the Marks Gallery. Bill Bauer presents "Stephen Sondheim (1930-2021): Broadway's Best Kept Secret". In a storied career that spanned seven decades, Stephen Sondheim transformed the American musical theater into a wry commentary on modern urban life (even when his characters were wandering around in the woods!). In that entire time, Sondheim produced only one hit song (do you know the title?). In his talk Bill will shed light on his genius for revealing the ambiguities and uncertainties of the human condition in his words and music.

Historic Branch Brook Park "designed by the famous landscape architect Frederick Law Olmstead" runs through Belleville and Newark has more than 2,700 Japanese cherry blossom trees that burst into full bloom during the month of April. Following our visit to the park, we will have lunch, family style at Hobby's Delicatessen & Restaurant rated as a "Top Ten Delicatessen in America" by Food and Wine Magazine.

MOVIES AT WINDROWS: Sunday, April 20th at 3:00pm. Come for the popcorn stay for the discussion!

Our April movie selection is the beloved oldie, An Affair to Remember. "For those of us who like to immerse ourselves in sense-assaulting love stories, this 1957 Leo McCarey classic is as good as it gets", writes The Guardian. "A relentlessly heart-tugging tale of two soulmates whose love even great tragedy cannot tear asunder, An Affair to Remember tosses and turns the emotions but never descends into schmaltz; it stays compelling – partly down to its smart, surprisingly sassy script, which often holds back when it could go for the cheap weep, but also because it is brought to us by two of the classiest acts in Hollywood history: Cary Grant and Deborah Kerr."

WEDNESDAYS AT WINDROWS: Wednesday, April 23rd from 3:00pm-4:00pm in the Marks Gallery. Dr. Brenda Leonard presents “The Inimitable George Gershwin” from 3:00pm-4:00pm in the Marks Gallery.

You’ve likely heard George Gershwin’s Rhapsody in Blue. But did you know there’s a Rhapsody No. 2? Gershwin also wrote musicals, composed an opera, created music for Hollywood film scores, and regularly played tennis with Arnold Schoenberg! Dr. Leonard explores one of America’s best-known composers. Expect to hear some favorites and discover some new treasures.

WINDROWS WARBLERS CHORUS CONCERT: Friday, April 25th from 4:00pm-5:00pm in the Gallery. “SONDHEIM! A Stephen Sondheim Review”

With his keen wit, sharp wordplay, and distinctive musical style, Stephen Sondheim revitalized Broadway in the 1960s and ‘70s, proving that rumors of its death were greatly exaggerated. Even before these contributions, he made his mark by providing the lyrics for two of the most important works in the genre, West Side Story (1957) and Gypsy (1959). Hit shows from this time include A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum (1962), Company (1970), Follies (1971), A Little Night Music (1973), Sweeney Todd: The Demon Barber of Fleet Street (1979). He went on to contribute lasting works of art in his shows Merrily We Roll Along (1981), Sunday in the Park with George (1984), and Into the Woods (1987). The Warblers will perform a selection of songs from these shows.

SUNDAY MUSCIALE OPERA: Sunday, April 27, at 6:00 PM in the Marks Gallery. The April opera feature will be Giuseppe Verdi's "Il Trovatore" (The Troubadour). The premier of this opera was in 1853. This recording features Joan Sutherland as Leonora. A soldier tells the story of the Count di Luna's father burning a gypsy woman as a witch. Her daughter kidnaps the Count's younger brother. It is assumed that the sister has burned the Count's brother as revenge. Leonora, a lady-in-waiting to the Queen, has been serenaded by a mysterious troubadour. Leonora has fallen in love with him. But the Count di Luna loves Leonora. The scene changes to the gypsy camp, where the gypsies are working and singing the Anvil Chorus. Space restrictions do not allow further description of the plot other than to say, as is typical in opera tragedies of this period, the good characters die, and the evil characters live on. But you get to listen to Joan Sutherland.

PRINCETON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA CHAMBER CONCERT: Wednesday, April 30th from 4:00pm-5:00pm in the Living Room. “Performances of unsparing expressivity, intimacy and vitality are hallmarks of the Signum Quartet, pairing music making of the subtlest order with playing of the highest intensity. The dramatic composition of their programs is innovative and distinct and is realized with uncompromising perfection in interpretations of effortless transparency.”
