EXPLORING SACRED WRITINGS: Tuesdays from 4:00pm to 5:00pm in the Barnhart Room. Every culture develops an ethics code expressed in writings to explain its values and validity. These are given as a list or a larger message in a special narrative. Such important instructions for life are special, regarded as inspired, and grow to the status of holy, even sacred. So, what to do with these revelations? We try to see what this great diversity shares – or is totally unique. At our meetings, after a chosen theme video, there is a lively discussion. Group members then share their perspective on what they watched. We also want to reach out to a broader band of revealed and revered thought: to truly Explore Sacred Writings. Come join us and contribute something that never crossed our minds!

UPGRADED ROOM RESERVATION SYSTEM: Please be advised that our Room Reservation System will be undergoing a backend upgrade; the full implementation is expected to take up to two months. There will be no change in the reservation process for residents, you may continue to email or call Isaiah for room bookings as usual. We are pleased to share that, once completed, the upgraded system will provide residents with faster calendar updates, accessible through both our website and the Windrows app. We appreciate your patience and understanding as we work on this implementation.

SUNDAY MUSICALE OPERA: Sunday, May 4th at 3:00pm in the Marks Gallery. The opera for May is "Count Ory" by Gioachino Rossini.

In 1824, Rossini was summoned to Paris to breathe new life into its opera culture. One of his best innovations in this period was the creation of an entirely new genre of opera comedy. "Count Ory" was the initial presentation that displayed what he created. The plot is light, just a tissue, but the music was an instant success. The overture is at times played at concerts by symphony orchestra concerts. The plot, such as it is, revolves around a countess whose husband is away fighting in some sort of crusade and the attempt by Count Ory, a womanizer, to seduce her. One goes to hear the music and how Rossini cleverly fits the plot and music together.

THE JEWELRY DOCTOR: Tuesday, May 6th from 11:00am-12:30pm in the Sherry Wagner Room. Jacqueline Yu Earle from the Willow Company will be at the Windrows for her monthly jewelry repair visits. Her experience with matters of the mind has shaped her artistic sensibility and technique which have enabled her to use colors and materials in evoking feelings and moods that are often hidden deep inside". Her primary goal in painting has always been to create works that are simple, serene, and meaningful.

MOVIES AT WINDROWS: Sunday, May 18th at 3:00 PM in the Marks Gallery. May's movie selection is Director Nora Fingscheidt's tender, expressively beautiful, and altogether unclassifiable recovery drama "The Outrun," (just under two hours) which stars Saoirse Ronan. "The Outrun" takes place in the present day; most of the action occurs in the Orkney Islands. The film celebrates rebirth, the spirit of a curious mind, and the restorative powers of nature and solitude as a cure for turmoil and loneliness. It is a gorgeous artifact and a cinematic experiment that works beautifully, one innovative frame at a time, centered on Ronan's soaring and soul-restoring performance. Come for the popcorn - stay for the discussion.

ANNUAL VARIETY SHOW: Monday, May 19th from 2:00pm-3:00pm in the Living Room. Join Bruce Jeffries-Fox and friends for his annual "Rites of Spring" Variety Show. Come out and enjoy the fun as our fellow Windrovians sing, play, conjure and comedify. Several beloved acts return, and other intrepid souls will grace our stage for the first time. Help us shake off the chilly weather and bring on the warmth of Spring!

WEDNESDAYS AT WINDROWS: Wednesday, May 28th from 3:00pm-4:00pm in the Marks Gallery. Peter Conn presents "The Best Seller in 20th and 21st Century America". Peter Conn retired from the University of Pennsylvania as Vartan Gregorian Professor of English and Professor of Education. Our speaker states the first effort to gather and publish more or less reliable information on American bestsellers was the work of The Bookman, in the mid-1890s. He will begin with a brief history of bestsellers as a category. The meaning of "bestsellers" is not self-evident, and the talk will include a definition of terms. He will provide to a survey of some of the major genres into which bestsellers have divided themselves: westerns, mysteries, romances, fantasy, and so forth. He will finish with an overview of the long and vexed relationship between bestsellers and so-called literary fiction.
